The driver stepped out and was arrested without incident. The two passengers were also able to get out of the car on their own. All three were transported to South Shore Hospital by ambulances with non-incapacitating injuries. They were treated and released.

The driver was then booked at the Hingham Police Station. Arrested was Luis Soto-Perez, age 19, of 35 Laurel Street, Apt. 14, Worcester, MA. He was charged with: 1) Larceny of a Motor Vehicle 2) Operating to Endanger 3) Malicious or Wanton Destruction of Property (the car) 4) Unlicensed Operation 5) Failure to Stop for Police 6) Marked Lanes Violation 7) Speeding. He was arraigned March 2 at Hingham District Court and ordered held on $500.00 bail. He will return to court March 21, 2017.

The two passengers, 18 and 19 year men from Worcester, were not arrested at the scene.
