Police Investigating Apparent Self Inflicted Gunshot Incident

Hingham, MA – Police are investigating an incident in which a man suffered an apparent self-inflicted gunshot wound Monday inside a library at a Hingham senior residential complex.

The incident occurred shortly before 3pm on September 25, 2017. A preliminary investigation shows the 84 year old resident fired two gunshots connected to an apparent suicide attempt. Officers quickly determined that this was an isolated incident. No other residents or staff were injured.

Hingham Police are working with the residents and staff of the Linden Ponds complex to offer them assistance. The incident remains under investigation.
